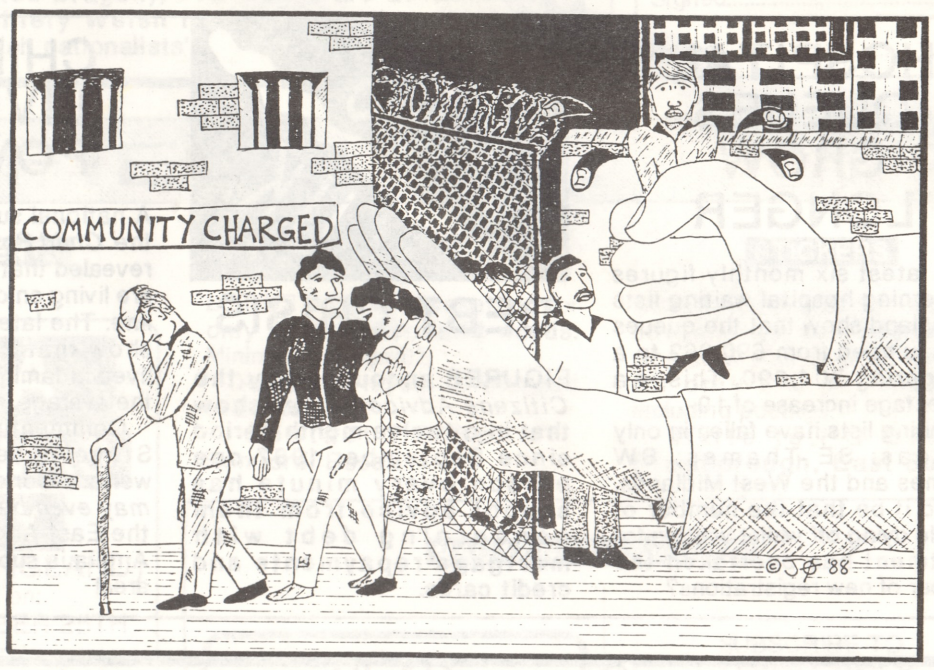
STOP THE POLL TAX

`BASH THE BAILIFFS´

ANGER at the Tories' Poll Tax plans is building up into the biggest popular challenge the Thatcher State has faced. The tax is not due to come into force in most of Britain until 1990, but is scheduled to start in Scotland next April.

It is unjust and undemocratic as it will hit the poor most and will encourage many of us not to register to vote in the hope of avoiding the tax. It will break up families as many will be unable to pay it if older children carry on living at home. It will create large numbers of homeless youth travelling around the country and moving on after a few weeks in order to avoid the tax. It will force millions of us in to debt. And it will be a financial disaster, because the extra cost of collecting it is going to be enormous. And in return? Thatcher will save up to £200,000 a year in her tax bills, and it's a similar story for the rest of the privileged elite!

Faced with a tax which will fall hardest on those least able to pay, people in Scotland are organizing to defy the State. 67,000 households in Lothian alone have refused to register to pay. Anti-Poll Tax unions have sprung up in every area and on every estate. They have advized people that they do not commit any offence unless the council can prove that they received a reminder. So these are being ripped up in their thousands. The councils will have to pay out a fortune in recorded delivery letters even to start building up accurate records!



PILLOCK

The Labour Party has again proved that it can provide no opposition to the Tories. Its leaders, at national and local level, have bottled out of the fight and have advized people to pay. Neil Pillock can afford to, he gets about £25,000 basic a year. But millions of ordinary folk won't have a choice. They can't pay - even if they wanted to.

The Tories in Scotland are beginning to panic. If just a bit more is done to organize the opposition, the tax just won't work. They have already seen their information collectors 'relieved' of their clip-boards and questionaires on big estates in Glasgow. And there just aren't enough prison cells to deal with those of us who aren't going to pay.

POLL TAX REBELS

The Tory answer to that is to threaten to send in the Bailiffs to seize goods from the houses of Poll Tax rebels. The popular reply to that is simple: "Bash the Bailiffs". If entire streets turn out to protect their neighbours, the tax will fail.

It is regrettable that Tory injustice is leading to such popular disregard for the law, but that's Thatcher's fault, not ours. The Tories started this fight, so they can't complain if ordinary people decide to finish it.

Confontation is now inevitable. The only question is whether it will take the form of negative violent gestures by individuals or be part of a positive campaign based on real popular participation.

Nationalists must help to build that popular base for a Poll Tax boycott. The message is clear: DON'T GET ANGRY - GET ORGANIZED!

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

TORIES NUCLEAR PLAN WILL ADD TO ENVIRONMENTAL CATASTROPHE

HARNESS NATURE - DON'T DESTROY IT

CARBON DIOXIDE is a gas which has been added continually to the atmosphere throughout the world's history as the result of volcanic and seismic activity.

However, until relatively recently this continued addition has been counter-balanced by the effect of plants which have removed CO_2 from the atmosphere and converted it to hydro-carbons (coal, oil and gas), stored in rocks at the earth's service.

But now, man's clinical exploitation of the earth's natural resources has brought us in line for a catastrophe of world wide proportions.

The pre-Industrial CO_2 content was about 300 parts per million, a concentration largely fixed since the Ice Age ten thousand years ago. However, it is generally recognized that since about 1860 atmospheric CO_2 content has increased to 320 parts per million and that this increase is accelerating as man uses the earth's fossil fuels at a faster and faster rate.

About 50% of CO_2 released by the burning of coal, gas and oil has gone into solution in oceans or entered the bio-mass, as plant growth has been stimulated, somewhat reducing the effect of release into the atmosphere. But if the multi-national corporations and world bank keep tearing down the bio-mass (for example the Amazon rain forest), then this is going to let the amount of CO_2 in the atmosphere continue to grow.

Between 1920 and 1940 the average temperature in the northern hemisphere increased by about 0.4 degrees C, probably as a direct result of the 'greenhouse effect'; CO_2 is an absorber of radiation (both incoming from the sun, and outgoing from the earth). So an increase in Carbon Dioxide changes the natural energy balance and raises air temperatures.

Predictions of the effects over the next few decades include some which suggest a concentration of CO_2 of 680 parts per million and by the year 2050 a consequent increase in temperature of two or three degrees.

Such a temperature rise would be catastrophic, resulting in the melting of peripheral ice-sheets which would mean a rise in sea levels thus flooding the world's rich lowland farming areas, as well as many of the world's major cities and areas such as Holland and Bangladesh. Such a rise in temperature would also lead to much of the remaining forest areas being destroyed by fire, thus releasing more CO_2 and accelerating the cycle.

Though this theory is not concrete, can we possibly risk such devastating effects? The simple answer is that we cannot. It is time to stop the wrecking of the rain forests and to stop the burning of fossil fuels.

The alternative, however, is not the supposedly 'safe' monstrosity of nuclear power which pollutes the gene pool of mankind, the environment and the food chain. The only real alternative which will not harm any aspect of nature is wind, solar and tidal power, which as well as being safe should also be cheap. The future of the world depends on it.

TORIES WELCOME TERROR LEADER

ADOLFO CALERA is one of the world's leading terrorists. This evil man is Chairman of the Conservative Party in Nicaragua and one of the brains behind the CIA backed Contra terrorist group.

Calera, whose group have written an "Assassination Manual", recently visited Britain at the request of the Tories and proudly strutted around their conference hall in Brighton with his official passes pinned to his jacket.

True to Conservative form, Calera is currently under investigation for fraud. This relates to his property empire in Miami being built by money destined for his Contra murder gangs.

It was recently revealed that Calera held a meeting at his house to plan a second assassination attempt on one of his enemies. This was none other than Nicaraguan Third Positionist leader Eden Pastora (see NFN 109). Calera's first attempt, at a press conference, failed but his bomb managed to kill several British journalists.

'POLITICAL SCAPEGOAT' PLAN REVEALED FROM FOOTBALL TRIAL

MUCH CONTROVERSY has surrounded the breakdown of the recent trials of alleged football hooligans, but hidden amid the general air of corruption and incompetence has been an altogether more sinister development which will be of special interest to NF News readers.

Stuart Glass, 26, of Hounslow, was one of eight youths charged with offences of violence carried out by the notorious Chelsea Headhunters gang. Not only was Stuart alleged to have belonged to the Headhunters, but a positive attempt was made to portray him as the leader of the gang, and the prime instigator of the violence which it had perpetrated. The local press in Hounslow went further still, printing allegations against him which had not even been made in court.

During the trial itself it became clear that, despite the accusations, there was not one jot of evidence to suggest that Stuart had been at all involved in any such violence. It also became clear that the Police were attempting to get him convicted on the strength of 'evidence' offered against other alleged members of the gang.

Stuart is in no doubt that this disgusting attempt to frame him was a direct result of his former membership of the National Front.

He told NF News "The police were trying to get me put away so that they could use my conviction as 'proof' that the NF is behind football violence. They were prepared to take away years of my life just to score a cheap political propaganda point".

Stuart Glass: Revealed criminalization plan directed against the National Front.

NF News condemns football violence without reservation. What the case of Stuart Glass makes clear, however, is that the State's main priority is not to stamp out this social disease created by a materialistic Capitalist System, but to apportion blame, with the NF being the favoured scapegoat.

All activists and supporters must be on their guard against this contemptable campaign to criminalize our movement.

HOSPITAL QUEUES GROW LONGER

THE latest six monthly figures concerning hospital waiting lists in England show that the queues have jumped from 690,962 to a staggering 704,090. This is a percentage increase of 1.9.

Waiting lists have fallen in only 3 areas: SE Thames; SW Thames and the West Midlands. Could it be that the number of people dying off whilst waiting for treatment has overtaken the number of new registrations?

CRISIS U.K.

DEBT CRISIS

FIGURES announced by the Citizens Advice Bureau show that in a twelve month period since September 1987 one person every minute has sought advice from them concerning debt with mortgage repayments and credit cards.

CHILDREN LIVING IN POVERTY

A national survey conducted by the Child Poverty Action Group revealed that one in five children are living on or below the poverty line. The latest figures available show that 2,470,000 children lived in families on less than half the average income.

Commenting on the findings, Steve Wiseman, a Norwich welfare worker thought that "it may even be more than that" in the East Anglian city. And East Anglia is supposedly an affluent area!

WHERE WE STAND

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self - determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable. No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

POPULAR RULE

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well - equiped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self - help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

DICTATORSHIP OF THE PRESS

WE have pointed out in the past just how dictatorial is the mass media. It is a system which can give you patronage or withdraw your patronage depending upon whether you go along with the establishment orthodoxy or not. It is a system that serves the interests of the International Capitalist System, and so hates all feelings of belonging and of community, and is contemptuous of all peoples who wish to preserve and enhance their respective cultures. The real race-haters, the real dictators are the mass media who are forever telling us that we live in freedom and democracy.

The Sunday Telegraph of October 23rd 1988 made an interesting admission that confirmed what we have said all along about the media and the National Front. Writing on the subject of the ban on reporting Sinn Fein, the Telegraph said "Why the BBC and the commercial companies have been more hospitable over the years to Sinn Fein than say the National Front is difficult to say. But that they most certainly have been few experts would deny". And further into the article, "Ideally the television companies should have been prepared to exercise as ruthless a form of self-censorship in keeping Sinn Fein off the air as they were and still are at keeping racists (sic) off the air, and if they had been, a governmental ban would have been unnecessary".

If that's not undemocratic and dictatorial, what is?

NEW RADIO STATIONS A CON!

THERE has been a lot of publicity in the media over the plan to introduce more and more 'independent' radio stations. According to the publicity blurb, this is so that the public can have free access to the media without the State controlled incumbrance of the BBC.

From this you would think that any group or individual could set up a radio station! But all the new stations will have to get a licence from the State before they can go on air. And naturally, the State will not issue a licence to anyone that deviates from its own 'values'.

So no chance of a Black or White nationalist getting to run one! And in case a station broadcasts something that they don't want us to hear, they have plans for a new radio authority as a regulatory body with "sharp teeth". This includes powers ranging from warnings to licence withdrawals and fines for the three planned national channels and up to 300 'community stations'.

Censorship of views is alive and well in Britain today. So brace yourselves for a lot more of the banal and petty rubbish that is already broadcast into our homes.

SOCIAL CONTROL

MANY analysts comment that the high amount of crime and drug abuse in the USA is a product of its undemocratic system of government and the resulting alienation of its peoples.

Likewise, many a media commentator has seen the wide use of drink and now drugs in the USSR as being a product of its evil social system. They do not blame the people, but the system under which they are compelled to live.

But back home, the government and its power elites outside government are using the problem of drunkeness to force on our people an all-seeing, all powerful State whose prime purpose is the contol of the individual. What our masters would like is to have video cameras on every street corner of the country. But would the public accept this gross intrusion on our personal freedom?

The first stage in the process is to insist on cameras in cities and town centres to help the police control 'lager louts' who are largely a figment of the media's imagination.

But where do they go from there? Cameras in every hamlet and village to protect us from so-called 'rural thugs'?

The truth is that it is the evil nature of our governmental system that is the cause of our peoples' lost bewilderment which forces them to drift into the social nihilism of drink or drugs.

In contrast we aim to build a society of which people will intrinsically feel a part.

TORIES SLAP DOWN KERNOW

THE Kernow town of Camborne recently appealed to the government to allow its road signs to be marked in Cornish as well as English. Roads Minister Peter Bottomley arrogantly slapped down the bilingual request.

"On journeys in England, drivers do not expect to see road signs which indicate something in a language unknown to them".

Perhaps someone should point out to this imperialist toady that Cornwall is not an appendage of England, but constitutes a historical nation with its own distinct culture, language and traditions. But more importantly the people of Kernow should take it upon themselves to raise their own road signs in the first move towards protecting and nuturing what is left of their language and culture.

THE POLITICS OF REPRESSION

REGULAR readers will recall a period when NFN was full of articles on minor acts of State harassment against our activists. Although we have not covered this aspect of our struggle for some time the problem has certainly not gone away as this special report, from one of our West London units, should make perfectly clear.

(1). One well-known member of the unit applied simultaneously for two credit cards - Access and TSB Trustcard. The TSB application arrived but the Access one did not.

After a couple of weeks he phoned both, which is when he discovered that his Access application had gone astray. TSB told him that they had written to his bank and were awaiting a reference.

A second application was sent to Access, while the member phoned his bank to try and hurry them up. They informed him that they had sent a letter to TSB a week previously. He therefore asked that a copy be sent, as their original letter had obviously got 'lost in the post'.

The copy of the bank letter arrived with TSB, but the second Access application again went astray. A few weeks later he received a notification from TSB telling him that his card would be sent within a week. In the meantime he applied a third time to Access.

The TSB card did not arrive, and after a while he had to order a fresh card, cancelling the previous one and reporting it to the police. However, the second card did not arrive either. Meanwhile he phoned Access, who told him that his third application had not been received.

A fresh application was made to a different branch of Access. The member also phoned TSB from the home of a non-political friend and instructed them to send the card directly to his bank. It arrived within seven days.

Two weeks later he telephoned the other branch of Access, who told him that the application had not been received, and had presumably been lost in the post. He then told them that he would not be re-applying. However, he did re-apply, posting his application from outside the area. The application arrived.

The above seems difficult to believe even by the standards of harassment and interference that we are used to. However, it must be remembered that in every instance described, the application had been discussed previously over his own telephone or that of his local organizer. It must also be noted that he had mentioned over the phone that he planned to donate several hundred pounds to the unit when he received his cards.

(2). Suspecting a campaign of interference, we arranged for four letters to be posted to our local PO Box from different 'addresses' and in different handwriting. Two were insulting letters, one was a cheque for £1.30 and the fourth was a promise of a three-figure donation were a representative to call in person.

The two insulting letters arrived, one on time and one a day late. The cheque arrived a day late. The donation pledge did not arrive at all.

(3). For the past two years a key activist's DHSS Giros have been arriving on time without exception. Of the last four, one has arrived late and two have vanished completely.

(4). Our organizer recently applied and was accepted for a job which was extremely highly paid. He mentioned over the telephone that he would donate a very considerable proportion of his weekly wages to the unit. The company was so lax that it did not even bother to check his employment references. But after being accepted for the job, the company soon 'discovered' his political 'record'.

The company in question is situated well outside this area, and none of its employees (other then the manager, who is a personal friend and got our organizer the job) are from around here. If the person who informed them was from the DHSS, it is likely that we would have found out as we have friends at the local office.

We think you will agree that the above, taken together, represents a little more than simple 'co-incidence'. What our members and supporters should learn from this episode is that the present strategy of the State would appear to be to try and damage us financially, as they very nearly succeeded in doing two years ago, rather than the crude repression of the recent past (ie. 'frame-ups' and false imprisonment, which is risky and can be counter-productive).

Why our area? We can only presume it to be a reaction to our regularly produced eight page local newsletter, which has brought our real outlook to 5,000 doors - the homes of over 12,000 people - concentrated in one small area. As other units begin to do the same thing, then we think we can safely assume that the same will happen to them.

MONEY MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND?

OVER the years, one thing that both the State and the nation could be proud of is the fact that even the less well off of our people had the right to roam freely through the countryside and study in libraries free of charge. But over the last few years there has been a disturbing new trend that leaves many of today's pastimes and learning in the hands of the rich. For every thing must make a profit!

There was a time when our national museums were free. Now you have to pay to enter. Farmers in Essex have started to introduce 'toll' bridleways for horse riders who will have to pay up to £100 annually. When will landowners charge for people to use footpaths we wonder? The government wants to charge heavy 'tolls' for the use of certain roads so that the rich can go about in speed and style.

And the latest move against the poorer sections of society is that the Round reading room at the British museum in London is about to break a 150 year old tradition of allowing free access to research and reference material. The British Library Board, headed by Lord Quinton, is considering proposals to introduce a yearly subscription charge.

All in all we can see that this nation is slipping into a State where people are valued by not what they are, but by how much money they have in their bank accounts.

DISCLAIMER

THE NATIONAL DIRECTORATE of the NATIONAL FRONT wishes to make it clear that the Flag and Vangaurd are not National Front Publications. They do not reflect NF policy or strategy and do not speak for the National Front.

They are produced by a small clique of reactionaries, thieves and drunks, expelled from the NF in 1986. Officials are reminded that both publications and their editors are proscribed. Members of the public are warned that the NF cannot be held responsible for money lost on subscriptions to the Flag and Vanguard when they cease publication.

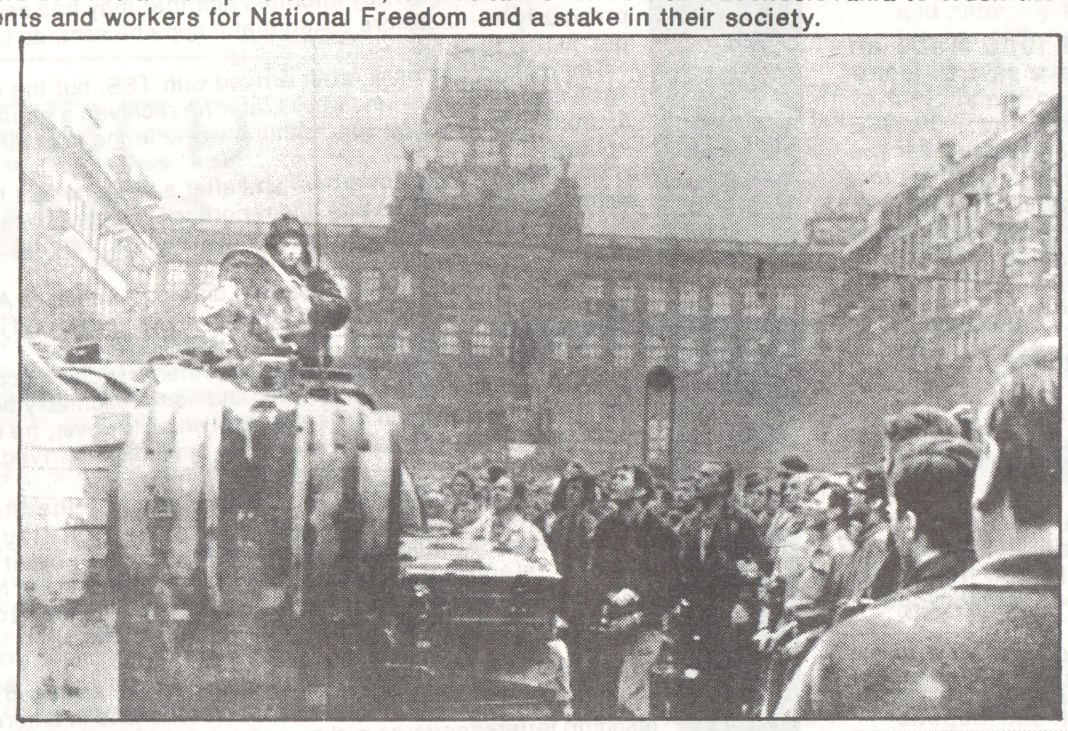
WORLD AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

EUROPE WILL BE FREE

TWENTY YEARS ago at the end of central Europe's summer, Soviet tanks rolled into Czechoslovakia to crush the demands of intellectuals, students and workers for National Freedom and a stake in their society.



Twenty years of European defiance: LEFT; Soviet tanks are jeered by Czechs as they rumble through Prague in 1968. ABOVE; Solidarność activists carry on the struggle in Poland.

Their example was attracting increasing support among the peoples of other captive nations of the East, so the Soviet government moved swiftly and brutally to re-impose its imperial authority. 650,000 troops were followed by the secret police.

Three times since then, the people of Poland have stirred, but the overwhelming threat of Soviet power kept them in line in the end. But the humiliating defeat and withdrawal from Afghanistan and the hopes for change araised by Gorbachev's glasnost ideas, are creating unrest and opportunities throughout the whole Soviet Empire.

REALITIES

The demands to re-draw national boundaries to take account of ethnic realities and the wishes of peoples such as the Armenians has been noted in several recent issues of NFN. This movement seems to be growing by the day. So too do demands in Russia for a move to true democracy where the people actually have free elections and can recall and sack their delegates to the Soviets.

A nationalist 'Peoples' Front' has been formed in Estonia to give mass weight to the Party's demands for economic autonomy and an end to immigration from other regions of the Soviet Empire. And in Yugoslavia, a march of 100,000 people led to the resignation of an entire regional politburo.

The Soviet Empire is crumbling before our eyes. If Gorbachev's reforms fail to deliver the goods, it will either simply break up, or the Party hawks will re-gain control and try to hold it together by force. If they do, the unrest is already so widespread that the whole of Eastern Europe will go up in flames.

FRESH IDEAS

Whatever happens, the political map of our continent is going to be redrawn. The 'reason' for the American occupation of the West will vanish. And the peoples of the East, much more political than our own TV drugged populations, will be looking for fresh political ideas.

Marxism is totally discredited, but that doesn't mean that they all have to turn to Capitalism and parliamentary dictatorship. The Third Position is as valid for our brothers and sisters in Eastern Europe as it is for us. National Revolutionary groups in the West should start work now to build contacts with the youth of emigre groups and to seek out ways to spread our message behind the rusty Iron Curtain.

Europe doesn't end with West Germany. Our Europe stretches from the Atlantic to the Urals. And she will be free!

OBLIVION FOR CANADIAN ESKIMOS?

ONE OF THE WORLD'S most fascinating races and culture is faced with annihilation. Canadian Eskimos have been forced by the government to give up their traditional life in order to be "reduced to a nation of form fillers living on government handouts". So says an official report on the Eskimos.

As a result of government action, young Eskimos are beginning to lose their native language which helped to instill a sense of pride and independence. Greed for Profit has eroded "traditional social controls in Eskimo society and crime and the use of drugs are becoming rife". Many Eskimos can no longer trap, hunt, fish or live off the land. Many of the younger generations can neither build igloos or make tools out of stone and bone. But in typical multi-racist fashion, all the Canadian government seems intent on doing is to put as many of them in civil service jobs as is possible.

NFN* feels that the best thing for the Eskimos is for the Canadian government to leave them alone and to stop dictating to them. For if the government carries on going the way it is, then the long term prospect for this People is bleak. The choice is clear - life or oblivion for the cultures of this world. Capitalism or the Third Position.

BLUE DANUBE

IT'S not only in the West that wild life and the environment are looked upon as items to be bought or sold or destroyed for profit. For one of the world's largest building projects in Eastern Europe could well lead to ecological disaster.

The Czechoslovak and Hungarian governments (along with some considerable help from Austria) have initiated a scheme known as the 'Project of the Century' which intends to divert the river Danube from its natural course.

It will effect nearly 200 kilometres of the Danube as it flows through Czechoslovakia and Hungary. The idea behind the project is the creation of hydro-electric power for both States. The mad-cap men of science want to divert the river into a concrete canal for no fewer than 10 kilometres to the north of its present course along a 25 kilometre stretch.

OPPOSITION

But there is some opposition to the scheme by a movement in Hungary called 'Duna Kor' (The Danube Circle) led by Biologist Janos Vargha. Duna Kor have explained how Hungary's water supply will be affected by the dam system. According to a study conducted by Vargha "45% of Hungary's drinking water is derived from water that filtered through the Danube's banks into the water table. This bank filtration depends on two factors - a high concentration of oxygen in the water and low concentration of organic material. The dam and canal system will reverse the relative concentrations". They also claim that the Danube is the "backbone of the eco-system in the area".

CAPITALIST FINANCE

Western Capitalistic greed in the shape of an Austro-Swiss bank consortium with the backing of the government in Vienna have helped put up the finance to back the project.

As a result of Western pressures, the Hungarian government have agreed to clamp down on Duna Kor and other environmental groups.

But there are good signs that despite the repression environmental activists in the East are no longer the disorganized groups they used to be. We wish them all the luck and hope for the future. In the meantime, if you see any Hungarian item on sale in a shop here, refuse to buy it.

A THIRD WAY ARGENTINA?

The presidential campaign in Argentina is presently at its height and opposition Peronists have a good chance of winning. But there is likely to be an even more ferocious battle of interest to Third Positionists as national revolutionaries in the populist Peronist movement seek to oust the right-wing clique that has led the movement astray.

BABIES FOR ORGANS ADOPTION HORROR

A horrific adoption network run by wealthy Americans was recently uncovered in Paraguay. Originally babies were kidnapped in Brazil and removed to Paraguay as a convenient place of transit on their way to the USA.

Once in the States the young innocents were to be butchered and sold to American organ banks. From there the remains would be sold to wealthy Americans whose own children needed transplants.

The kidnappers planned to pretend that the infants were going to adoptive parents in the USA but Paraguayan officials became suspicious when most of the babies involved turned out to be deformed.

What kind of world is it that can mould such a horrific mentality in people?

BRAZIL PERSECUTES INDIANS

MEANWHILE in an unprecedented attack upon its native population, Brazil has classified its Indians as 'foreigners'. The Indians have lived there for 30,000 years but two of their leaders and a American ethno-biologist recently stood trial accused of infringing the 'Foreigners Law'.

The law forbids foreigners from engaging in political activity or involving themselves in public matters and carries a sentence of between one and three years in gaol plus obligatory expulsion from the country.

"Where would they expel us to?" asked Indian activist Paulinho Paiakan philisophically

The charges against the two Kayapo Indians arose when they accused Brazilian authorities of disrespecting land rights in a hydro-electric dam project.

The Brazilian authorities have recently stepped up their persecution of Indians and also anthropologists in an attempt to militarize the Amazonian frontier and open Indian territories to mining, timber exploitation, hydro-electric power schemes and other economic interests.

ZIONIST ATROCITIES WILL GROW

WITH well over 300 unarmed Palestinians murdered by Israeli troops so far in the heroic Intifada, Israel has gone to the polls and it seems certain that the right wing Likud party will triumph in the resulting coalition government. Likud leader, and 'former' terrorist butcher, Ariel Sharon, has already made it perfectly clear that he intends to smash Palestinian resistance to Israel's genocidal policy in the occupied territories with maximum force.

With this in mind it is now more important than ever for the national revolutionary movement in Britain to step up its activities with the Campaign for Palestinian Rights. CPR can claim a huge success with its campaign against pro-Zionist travel agents. Even though ABTA's Israeli conference went ahead, CPR played a large role in persuading well over a thousand of its delegates to stay at home. New stategies to aid the Palestinian cause are being formulated at the moment and will come into effect shortly. We will not let the Israeli butchers win!

MISURASATA

THE STRUGGLE FOR INDIAN RIGHTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

IN ALL the talk of peace plans for Central America one simple fact about that region is being ignored. Central America is also Indian America. Within the boundaries of seven States are some 50 enduring indigenous nations whose peoples make up 23 per cent of the area's population and who inhabit nearly 40 per cent of its area.

Many do not realize that a state of war has existed for 500 years, claiming millions of lives. It began with the arrival of the Spanish Conquistadors, but continues in strife between Hispanic and Indian peoples. Today, it continues to be waged much more subtlely, although just as ruthlessly, under modern camoflage terms of 'integration', 'economic development', 'eradication of terrorists' and promotion of 'peace'.

Plans have been pushed by liberals and conservatives within the Reagan administration, as well as by Costa Rican President Oscar Arias, seeking to end the ongoing wars. Yet, behind this noble facade we find that the preservation of power is the goal of all parties concerned. The U.S. wants to stop Soviet involvement in Central America, while Central American governments want peace from insurgents trying to overthrow them, so that they can continue in their own territorial wars against the Indian peoples. Where in the peace plans is there any mention of the Guatemalan government's war on the Mayan peoples for their land? Where is there mention of El Salvador's annexation of communal tribal lands, taken under the guise of combatting leftist rebels?

As for Nicaragua, the Sandinistas accuse the U.S. of doing to their country exactly the same thing as they themselves are doing to the Miskitu, Sumo and Rama nations - using military force and human rights violations to deny self-determination and to overthrow a popular revolution.

IMAGES OF WAR

THE destitute children picured above typify what Misurasata are fighting against and fighting for: Against genocidal imperialist pretensions from both the 'Right' and 'Left'; For preservation, peace and autonomy for their peoples and nations.

It is a struggle for national survival that involves the whole community: Men and women; old and young - all united in common cause for not just Indian rights, but also basic human rights.

IN November 1985, Russell Means, and other leaders of the American Indian Movement announced that they were recruiting native Americans to join Miskitu freedom fighters in opposition to the Marxist Sandinista government in Nicaragua.

The indigenous tribes of Miskitu Indians along the Atlantic coast of the country have resisted the Sandinistas since late 1981, fighting for self-determination.

Conflict erupted as Marxists began raiding Indian villages and later resorted to wholesale relocation of indigenous peasants forcing nearly 20,000 Nicaraguan Indians to flee into neighbouring Honduras.

Means explained that sending American Indian combatants to fight the Sandinistas would "begin the process of uniting the Red people of the western hemisphere".

While anti-Communist, Russell Means and his comrades have insisted on operating outside the CIA-backed Contra faction and refuses to recognize any officials picked by the U.S. government. Nonetheles, Means has taken a hard line with Ortega's regime declaring that the Sandinistas have been subjecting the population to a "soulless Marxist experiment".

Although the media have all but ignored the courageous efforts of AIM and the Miskitu rebels this latest activism represents the fight for Indian racial survival.

FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE

WRITING in a Washington Post column, AIM leader Russell Means explained his decision to travel in the war-torn countryside of Nicaragua and see for himself the reality of the conflict there.

"I realized that one force without any outside support whatsoever, had waged a five year armed resistance against the Marxist-led government. It is made up of American Indians fighting under the banner of an organization known as Misurasata".

Means went on to question Reagan's support of the so-called Contra 'freedom fighters', whose war to overthrow the Sandinistas has been less successful than the Indians, as well as questionable in terms of strategic and economic planning and in its moral implications. Means is perceptive enough to point out that the US stategy virtually guarantees "that the use of American troops will eventually be required to change the course of the Sandinista regime".

While Reagan-backed Contra units were collapsing in the field, Misurasata managed to secure the bulk of the traditional Atlantic coast Indian territory against invasion by the Sandinista army.

"I also experienced first-hand the nature of Managua's response to the effectiveness of Indian resistance", says Means. "Unable to manoeuvre on the ground within Indian territory, they have resorted to air strikes and helicopter assaults on villages and other civilian targets, as well as attempting to blockade by sea. I have seen the mass graves that result from 28 different villages, concerning the Sandinista programme of torture and execution intended to terrorize the Indians into submission and centralized rule. This policy of terror has backfired on Managua".

SELF-DETERMINATION FOR THE INDIAN NATIONS IS THE ANSWER

THE REASON for the Contra failure to effectively challenge the Sandinistas is that the Indian resistance fighters of the Miskitu, Sumu and Rama nations of Misurasata are struggling for autonomy and self-determination. This is something that the officials of the U.S. State Department find unacceptable. As Russell Means believes, Reagan's policy is manifestly "more anti-Indian than anti-Communist". Indian fears of placing itself under the tiny CIA operated Contra group, 'Kisan' come from the fact that both Washington and Managua promote Kisan as the "legitimate Indian voice" which suggests how much the two powers wish to avoid the emergence of genuine Indian sovereignty in the hemisphere.

Says Russell Means: "There is no reason to expext [the Indians] to be more willing to accept such behaviour from Washington than from Managua. If by some fluke the Contras were to unseat the Sandinistas tomorrow, they too would have to deal with Indian rights to autonomy and self-determination on the Atlantic coast".

Just how great the threat of Indian resistance is to U.S. interests is reflected in agitation over the past two years by Honduran Miskitus for self-rule in their territories. Unifying with Indian leaders who are engaged in struggle against the Sandinistas, the Miskitu community of 30,000 in eastern Honduras are agitating for autonomy and the possibility of armed struggle to secure their rights.

The upshot is that the U.S. administration must face the possibility of another Vietnam-type quagmire in suppressing Indian rights, with all the financial and human costs this involves. The indigenous peoples of Central America have been fighting seven years for land-based democracy and self-determination, not for the urban peace of political parties, elections and compromise promoted by the Reagan and Arias plans.

NATIONAL FRONT NEWS

EDITORIAL OFFICE: PO Box 57, Romford, Essex, RM7 9BG.

SUBSCRIPTION DEPT: PO Box 228, Manor Park, London, E12.

ENQUIRIES: Phone 01 373 3432 - 24 hours

ALTERED IMAGES

OVER the last couple of years, the National Front has undergone massive development in its organization, attitudes and ideology. As these changes become better known amongst the public, particularly local media staff, the image which goes with the name 'National Front' is going to change out of all recognition.

Hastening this change has been the top priority of this paper for the last eighteen months - and it will continue to be so until the transformation is complete.

For we are not satisfied with the image that goes with the name 'National Front'. But let it be understood once and for all that we do not intend to change the name. Never. It has too much value in terms of latent support and grudging respect. It has too much value as a means of attracting public attention and to get publicity for our ideas.

For example, if a group of ordinary Whites proposed co-operation with Blacks or Muslims to achieve a common aim of segregated schooling, no-one would bat an eyelid. But when the 'Black-baby eating' NF can be seen talking to immigrant groups and communities - that's big news.

OUR NAME

The name 'National Front' is ours. And the basic philosophy of national independence, freedom and identity which underlay its formation in 1967 will remain ours as well. But the image which goes with it all is being changed.

This is not a problem for cadres, who produced much of the pressure for such a change in the first place. It is not a problem for the NFN Supporters who will find it easier to spread a message which is not distorted by hate. It is not a problem for our sympathizers who want to express their views, but who do not want to be viewed as negative morons spoiling for confrontation and violence.

But it is a problem for the small group of inadequates, drunks, thieves and police grasses who line their own pockets with collections and donations to their right wing rag 'The Flag', whilst using the name of the National Front.

IN THE GUTTERS

For while they are happy to reap the financial benefits of using our name, they are going to become less and less happy about it in future. Their one consistent tactic has been to root through the gutters in search of support on the lowest common denominators of race hate, bigotry and mindless and ineffectual violence.

The name 'National Front' is becoming more and more closely identified with the things that they abhor: popular participation; co-operation with Black and Asian separatists; the struggle of the Palestinians; support for countries like Libya, threatened by the USA; a systematic move back to the land leading to the dismantling of the conurbations, independence for Ulster in a federated British family of nations.

As knowledge of our aims spreads wider, those who would leech off our name will find that they are also being associated with ideas which will drive their few supporters wild.

Holding pitiful 'marches', helping State agencies such as 'Searchlight' make smear programmes and sending out silly press statements saying the opposite to everything that the National Front says won't make the slightest difference. We have the personnel, the organization, the circulation, the assets, the money and the burning vision to make sure that we call the shots.

Having made that perfectly clear we shall not waste such space on these low lifes again. We hope that they go away, but it really doesn't matter if they don't because they have become quite irrelevant. And, apart from the soap opera round of pilfering and wife-swapping, they have become fundamentally boring.

BEWARE OF IMPOSTORS

Readers and supporters in the Epping Forest area are reminded that we are not standing in the forthcoming by-election although the issue has become confused with Tories leeching off our name. Don't vote for them! And pass the message!

NOT AN EGO-PAPER!

Dear Sir,

Although I find the economics of the movement difficult to grasp from a standpoint of feasibility I must say that I find your de-centralization policies concerning the State and its powers most radical and pleasing; the State is corrupt from top to bottom. I know this from personal experience.

Both my girlfriend and myself are very pleased with the general format of NF News; it really does look like a newspaper now and not an ego-paper as it was some years ago. We enjoyed your article in Nationalism Today concerning the Family. We have two children ourselves and naturally we worry for their future. Although they are only three years and three weeks old respectively, we worry about the education system, the tensions in multi-racial societies, loss of cultural values etc. We believe that only the National Front offers genuine hope for our childrens' future.

I personally worry about our nation; the destruction of cultural values and so on. For example, I am half-Kernow and although I was raised in the north I like to hold on to my heritage. I am horrified by the way the State has destroyed Kernow and her history and language. I always make sure that my relatives in Kernow are forwarded NF News as a matter of a lifeline to them from an ideological point of view.

Finally I wish to ask if the movement is planning to make more audio tapes in the future concerning the movement, ideology and so on. This is a great help for my girlfriend, who although intelligent suffers from dyslexia. I read NF News onto audio cassette for her. This week we are to send for tapes from the movement, so let me know on that one concerning future developments.

For the Third Position,
A.M. Bolton.

Editorial Reply

Readers will be pleased to learn that the NF's Education and Training Dept intend to put much more emphasis on the use of audio cassettes as a part of their educational programme.

AUTOMATED ROBOTS

Dear Sir,

In the relentless march towards a cultureless, raceless world, the Zionists pull no punches in their drive to destroy what remains of Christian values. A grossly insulting and pornographic film called "The last Temptation of Christ" is being used to undermine the last vestige of Christian pride. To show this filth in a so-called Christian country makes a complete mockery of our people.

But although our country has completely sold out to the Zionists, some non-Christian countries seem to have more respect for culture. In this case we must praise the government of India which has banned this film. A spokesman for the Indian government has said "there is no question of screening any film which will hurt the religious sentiments of people".

India may have many problems, but we can see that they are in many respects a far more tolerant society than we in the West are. For the establishments of the West are completely intolerant of views, races, traditions and cultures which stand in the way of their drive to make us all automated robots.

Yours sincerely,
B.C. Herts.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Sikhs and several other religious/cultural groupings agitating for autonomy demonstrate how tolerant India is. "There is no question of screening any film which will hurt the religious sentiments of people". Is this why the Indian government censored footage of their troops ransacking the Golden Temple?

POTENTIAL

Dear Sir,
There is great potential for the National Front to organize amongst students at the moment. As life under the Tories becomes more unbearable for us, many students are now seeking political solutions and are prepared to fight for their rights, especially in the colleges. Grants have been slashed by a massive 23% and on top of this Thatcher plans to freeze them at their present level and introduce a system of 'top-up loans' so that we can carry on with our education. We have already lost most of the other benefits that we relied on and the few that we can still claim are to be denied us. Students need the Third Way!

Yours sincerely,
Miss H.T. Kent.

ATTACK THEM WITH TRUTH AND INTEGRITY

Dear Sir,

I forwarded you a cheque at the end of May 1988 to cover my NFN Supporters subscription for a three month period. This cheque was never presented for payment by you which means it was probably stolen or diverted in the post.

I saw the television programme and read the article in last Sunday's Observer (about Meibion Glyndwr) and the conclusion is obvious.

You are hitting the establishment where it hurts; you attack them with Truth and integrity and they reply the only way they know how with lies, misinformation and distortion of Truth and Justice.

In the end I have no doubt that the Political Soldiers and patriots of the National Front will win the day.

The road will be hard and the Sacrifices many. The establishment and their Zionist and masonic lackeys will resist fiercely but the Peoples of Britain led by the National Front will win and lead us to a better Britain which will truly be a Family of Nations, linked by blood and history, and ready to be able to defend itself against any aggression both monetary and military.

Yours sincerely,
M.D. Northampton.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Thank you for confirming to us that our post is once again being stolen. We had suspected that the Powers that Be had once again turned to their criminality regarding correspondance and financial contributions sent to us through their postal system. We would like to remind our supporters that there is only one way to get round this problem and that is to pay any regular contributions by Standing Order.

CRUELTY

Dear Sir,

I recently had passed on to me a copy of your magazine 'Introduction to the Movement' by a friend who is a supporter of your movement. I've got to admit I was extremely surprised at its contents - it's not what I expected at all.

The section which particularly caught my attention was that on Animal Welfare, as I am involved in the AW movement. You say that you oppose the persecution of animals under the guise of 'science' or 'sport' but stop there.

I would be grateful if you would let me know where you stand on such abominable issues such as factory farming, slaughtering methods, and the transportation of live animals etc.

Yours sincerely,
R.H. Brentwood, Essex.

EDITORIAL REPLY

The NF is committed to the slogan 'Living without Cruelty' and this obviously encompasses all aspects of animal welfare and not just the two mentioned in our 'Introduction to the Movement'.

This is not just policy or sloganeering but is in fact fundamental to our philosophy.

Thank you for your literature. NFN does in fact intend a major feature on man's inhumanity towards animals sometime in the early part of next year.

FAMILY FORTUNES

Dear NFN,

Several years ago Robert Maxwell, alias Jan Ludvik Hoch, brought Oxford Utd and Reading. He attempted to merge the two football clubs together as 'Thames Valley Royals' but was eventually defeated in this move. He then brought Derby County and also tried for Watford but was knocked back by the FA.

The Monopolies Commission backed by the FA then ruled "One Chairman, one club" so Hoch was forced to sell up his interests in Reading and Oxford, but he sold Oxford to his son!

Hoch has always tried to say that his interest in football clubs is because of a genuine love and concern for the game, and not long ago he even gave a financial 'Christmas present' to Southend Utd, who were on the verge of bankuptcy, in order to bail them out. A clever move!

But his real motives - ie. financial - were exposed at the end of October. Oxford manager Mark Lawrenson was sacked by Kevin Maxwell/Hoch because he had asked some searching questions about the sale of our leading striker Dean Saunders to his father's club, Derby, for £1 million. A nice little profit for the shareholders - ie. the Hochs!

Yours,
B.S. Oxford.

THE BATTLE TO SAVE WALES

IN issue 109 of NF News we carried a major article concerned with the struggle of Meibion Glyndwr to halt the growing destruction of their language and culture by the very real peril of wealthy English yuppies buying holiday homes in Cymru.

Our article concluded that Wales would be better served if Meibion Glyndwr turned from their understable, yet mistaken, actions to attempting to build alternative community structures that by-passed the Westminster State. We also proposed that they should seek to build working political links with national revolutionaries in England who could effectively campaign to disuade potential second home owners from destroying Wales.

In recent weeks English comrades in conjunction with Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru / Wales NF have taken the first practical step in this strategy by producing a leaflet aimed at second home owners. This is now being widely distributed to potential holiday home buyers.

Other comrades throughout the British Isles should use the text of the leaflet, which we have re-printed as an article below, for the basis of letters to local and regional papers in a nationwide campaign to save Cymru. FfC Cymru also request that if any estate agents in your area are advertizing property in Wales, then make sure they get a copy of the leaflet.

PROPERTY IN WALES is often cheaper compared with much of England. It's a beautiful country with a unique culture and its own beautiful language. So it's no wonder that you might be tempted to buy a house there. But stop and think about what your action would mean to Wales.

In some parts of North Wales, a quarter of all houses are holiday homes, while thousands of young Welsh families are homeless, with no hope of competing with wealthy English buyers. As local people are forced out, shops, schools and other services have to shut, because second homes are only occupied for a few weeks a year.

English people who actually settle in Wales may not damage the local economy so much, but their impact on the culture and language of Wales is shattering.

Welsh is struggling for survival. With so much TV and entertainment in English/ American, it only takes a few English speakers in a playgroup or school to make English the dominant tongue.

This is causing the gradual destruction of the Welsh identity, including the murder of the oldest living language in Europe. How would you like it in England if mass alien immigration leads to your grandchildren coming home from school speaking a foreign language and knowing nothing of their own heritage?

That's exactly what is happening in Wales - a nation is being murdered. Don't be a party to this cultural genocide. Don't murder Wales.

DON'T MURDER WALES!

Even if you don't give a damn about such things remember that there is growing resentment and anger as a result. Do you really want to holiday among people who hate your presence? Do you really want to pay ever higher insurance premiums as more people follow the mistaken but understandable actions of those who have been driven to burning out holiday homes?

The people of Wales do not hate ordinary English speakers. If you want to come and live in our country, you are welcome on one simple condition - learn Welsh and use it! You wouldn't dream of emigrating to France and expecting the locals to learn to speak English, so why should it be any different in Wales?

Young families are especially welcome, particularly if they have some old family ties to our land, which has been depopulated by years of exploitation and neglect. And if they bring useful skills and make a real effort to adapt and fit in with the local community.

If you think you can do that, then start learning Welsh and look more closely. But if not, there are parts of England as wild, as beautiful and relatively cheap as our own land. Go there instead and be proud to keep them English.

Y DDRAIG GOCH

WITH the establishment of FfC Cymru as a growing and credible new force in the Welsh political scene, it is becoming more difficult for the old status quo to ignore their call for a national revolution in the land of comrades. Unable to counter the vibrant ideas of the Third Position the reactionary bloc, led by Plaid Cymru, have taken to trying to ridicule the call for National Freedom and Social Justice in Wales.

This has also led to an eager interest in the movement and our ideas from the Welsh media. FfC Cymru recently found themselves the subject of an eight minute radio broadcast on Radio Cymru and are continually in demand by local journalists.

With the publication of their own Welsh language bulletin, Y Ddraig Goch (The Red Dragon), FfC Cymru are at last being viewed as a genuinely Welsh movement rather than the mouthpiece of 'English nationalists'.

LEGAL

FIGHT ON AFTER YOU'VE GONE!

ONE of the greatest regrets our supporters - and especially our oldest supporters - have is that they will not be able to carry on fighting for the Cause for ever!

In 1980, the financial survival of the movement was ensured by the bequest of one of our deceased members. That member was never to know what a vital part she played in the history of our movement, but that does not detract from her contribution.

While, thankfully, the movements finances are on a much more secure footing, the movement is always in need of money to enable it to carry out activities necessary to development.

Make sure that you remember the National Front when you make out your Will. If you have already written your Will add a codicil for the benefit of the movement. If you are unsure about any of the legal technicalities in arranging this, please do not hesitate to contact our Legal Department.

AUTONOMY

This new feature is designed to give every unit and activist a political tool to help build support for National Revolutionary ideas in the workplace and on housing estates. Subjects covered will vary, so too should the places you seek to sell it. Regular general street sales are not enough. You must arrange sales to hit the obvious target group of that particular issue.

"NO TO THE BOSSES, NO TO THE UNION HACKS"

THAT'S the message of AUTONOMY, the newly formed industrial/social wing of the National Front. Its aim is to mobilize public opinion at a local level, agitating to encourage workers and consumers to take control over more aspects of their own lives. And to provide whatever advice and assistance necessary to make self-help and independence a reality rather than pretty slogans.

More and more people are sick of having their workplaces and estates run by the rich and by their police. And growing numbers are rejecting the old 'opposition' of time-serving union officials and council-controlled tenants associations. These political cretins are there for their own pockets or their own centralist ideologies. They represent no-one but themselves.

AUTONOMY* is going to show that there is an alternative. We can all regain control of our lives. But only if we learn how to fight. And first of all, how to organize.

FIGHT COMPETITIVE TENDERING:

WORKERS MUST TAKE OVER

COUNCIL WORKERS all over Britain are under attack. The government has decided that competitive tendering must be introduced by all councils by 1990.

Union 'measures' to resist it have proved totally useless. And the Labour Party is too busy trying to 'out-Tory the Tories' to raise a finger.

When all the waffle is stripped away, competitive tendering means you work for less to keep your job. The bonus system will be scrapped. Re-grading will make qualifications and experience irrelevant. We won't even know what our take-home pay at the end of the week will be because the low pay will be decided by the grade of each job, each day, rather than by the position of the worker in question.

The unions have accepted this unfair system which, for example, will put park workers (who have to do a wide variety of jobs outside in all weathers) no higher than basic attendants at indoor sports centres.

PUBLIC HIT TOO

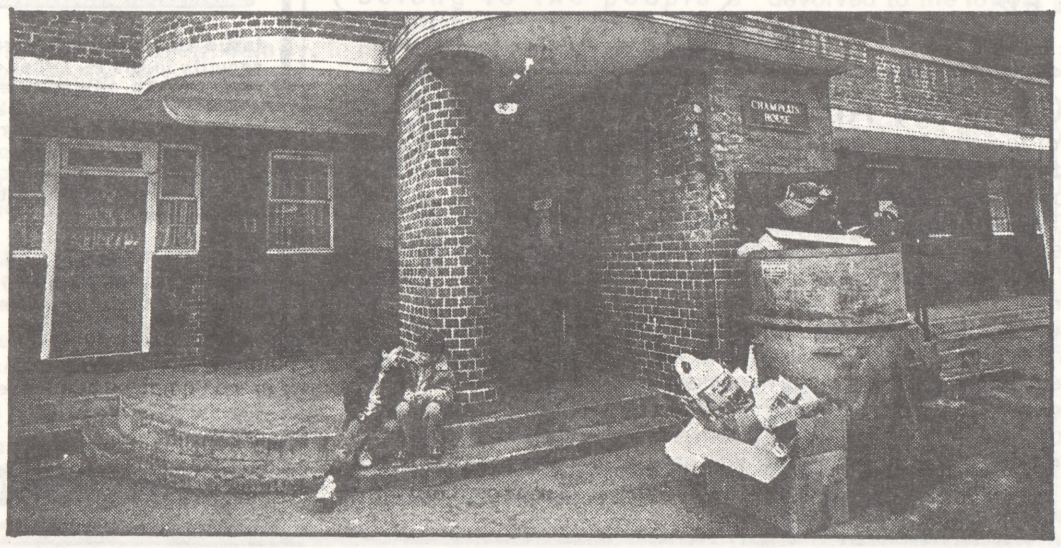
And it's not just council workers who will be hit by competitive tendering. It hits the public too, as was shown by the recent scandal over firms used on this basis providing inedible food to pensioners.

Firms put in unrealistically low tenders to get a contract, then make their profits by providing sub-standard materials or services. Big firms subsidize their tender operations to start with, to undercut and destroy their smaller competitors. Then, the prices rocket and services suffer. Just look at what's happened on some dustbin runs.

Tendering also encourages corruption. Everyone knows how council bosses can fiddle things so that a contract goes to a favoured company. Out of three companies approached, one is deliberately chosen because it is too small to cope. One is chosen because it is known to be expensive. And the third, favoured, company is told in advance the price the council is prepared to pay, so it is able to send in the 'right' tender.

So competitive tendering not only hits council workers and the standard of services, it also leads to corrupt fortunes being made from public money.

ABOVE: Council workers on the march in London in 1986. BELOW: Services would be improved if we worked for ourselves. This mess is the result of privatizing bin rounds.



DIRECT LABOUR FAULTS

Of course, no-one can truthfully pretend that the old direct labour alternative has been working well. It is wasteful. Lack of incentive and responsibility at all levels makes it inefficient. Let's be honest, we could all work a bit harder if the incentive was there. But why should we bother when management are so incompetant, arrogant and plain useless? When they waste time, materials and money so freely, why should we sweat to put things right for them? We don't see the benefit or even get any thanks.

But now that the Tories have opened up a debate on the whole issue, it's time for council workers to have our own say. We don't need Capitalist sharks tendering for our jobs. We don't need management fouling up jobs they don't understand.

GOOD LOCAL SERVICES

Rate-payers want to see their money being used well to pay for good local services. If we cut out the middle-men and the bureaucrats it would be. Many council operations, such as park maintainance, refuse collection etc, could easily be handed over to the workforce to run themselves.

Then the public would get value for money because working for ourselves we would naturally work a bit harder, because we would see the profits. Our jobs would be safe, and services would be assured because workers live in the areas in question, instead of at the end of long leafy drives in suburbia like the bosses of tendering companies.

Service co-ops make sense. And they are the only alternative to competitive tendering.

The Tories don't like them because they mean freedom and decent money for the workforce. The unions don't like them because there's no reason to pay union dues and union hacks when the workers are the owners.

But because they do make sense, their time is coming. Our future depends on it.
